

117TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 4869

To index certain thresholds for inflation.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 15, 2022

Mr. LEE (for himself, Ms. LUMMIS, and Mr. BRAUN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To index certain thresholds for inflation.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Saving Privacy Act”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

6 Congress finds the following:

7 (1) Public Law 91–508 (referred to in this sec-
8 tion as the “Bank Secrecy Act”) authorized the Sec-
9 retary of the Treasury to establish recording and re-10 porting requirements for financial institutions, in-
11 cluding the prescription of thresholds for such re-
12 quirements.

1 (2) In 1972, the Department of the Treasury
2 published the final rule implementing the Bank Se-
3 crecy Act, which required filing a report on each
4 “transaction in currency of more than $10,000”.

5 (3) While the Supreme Court of the United 6 States issued a ruling in California Bankers Associa-
7 tion v. Shultz, 416 U.S. 21 (1974) that the Bank
8 Secrecy Act did not violate the Fourth Amendment
9 to the Constitution of the United States, the control-
10 ling opinion cautioned that “a significant extension 11 of the regulations’ reporting requirements . . . would 12 pose substantial and difficult constitutional ques-
13 tions”.

14 (4) Inflation has risen to almost 600 percent
15 since the 1974 decision described in paragraph (3)
16 and the threshold has not been adjusted accordingly.

17 (5) While $10,000 was sufficient to buy a mod-18 est multi-bedroom home in the 1970s, today that 19 amount cannot even cover the purchase of many 20 lightly used cars.

21 (6) This development represents a significant 22 extension of the reporting requirements under the 23 applicable regulations and could render the Bank
24 Secrecy Act reporting requirement unconstitutional
25 unless redressed.

1 SEC. 3. RECORDS AND REPORTS ON MONETARY INSTRU-
2 MENT TRANSACTIONS.

3 Title 31, United States Code, is amended—

4 (1) in section 5313(a), in the first sentence, by 5 striking “, or under circumstances the Secretary
6 prescribes by regulation” and inserting “not less
7 than $10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal year begin-8 ning after September 30, 2022 to reflect the per-9 centage change in the Consumer Price Index for 10 such fiscal year compared to the Consumer Price
11 Index for the year ending September 30, 1974)”;

12 (2) in section 5316(a), by striking “more than 13 $10,000” each place the term appears and inserting 14 “not less than $10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal
15 year beginning after September 30, 2022 to reflect
16 the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index
17 for such fiscal year compared to the Consumer Price
18 Index for the year ending September 30, 1974)”;

19 (3) in section 5318—

20 (A) in subsection (a)(2), by striking “as 21 the Secretary may prescribe by regulation” and 22 inserting “relating to transactions of not less 23 than $10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal year
24 beginning after September 30, 2022 to reflect
25 the percentage change in the Consumer Price
26 Index for such fiscal year compared to the Con-

1 sumer Price Index for the year ending Sep-
2 tember 30, 1974)”; and

3 (B) in subsection (g)—

4 (i) in paragraph (1), by inserting “of 5 not less than $10,000 (as adjusted for 6 each fiscal year beginning after September
7 30, 2022 to reflect the percentage change
8 in the Consumer Price Index for such fis-
9 cal year compared to the Consumer Price
10 Index for the year ending September 30,
11 1974)” after “report any suspicious trans-12 action”; and

13 (ii) in paragraph (5)(D)(ii)(II), by in-14 serting “of not less than $10,000 (as ad-
15 justed for each fiscal year beginning after 16 September 30, 2022 to reflect the percent-
17 age change in the Consumer Price Index
18 for such fiscal year compared to the Con-
19 sumer Price Index for the year ending Sep-
20 tember 30, 1974)” after “any other trans-
21 action”;

22 (4) in section 5331, in subsections (a)(1)(B)
23 and (d)(1)(B), by striking “$10,000” each place the 24 term appears and inserting “$10,000 (as adjusted
25 for each fiscal year beginning after September 30,

1 2022 to reflect the percentage change in the Con-
2 sumer Price Index for such fiscal year compared to 3 the Consumer Price Index for the year ending Sep-
4 tember 30, 1974); and

12 SEC. 4. RETURNS RELATING TO CASH RECEIVED IN TRADE
13 OR BUSINESS.

14 Section 6050I of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986
15 is amended—

16 (a) in subsections (a)(2), (d)(2), and (g)(1), by strik-
17 ing “$10,000” each place the term appears and inserting 18 “$10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal year beginning after 19 September 30, 2022 to reflect the percentage change in 20 the Consumer Price Index for such fiscal year compared 21 to the Consumer Price Index for the year ending Sep-
22 tember 30, 1974); and

23 (b) in subsection (d)(1), by inserting “of not more 24 than $10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal year beginning
25 after September 30, 2022 to reflect the percentage change

1 in the Consumer Price Index for such fiscal year compared
2 to the Consumer Price Index for the year ending Sep-
3 tember 30, 1974)" after "currency".

4 SEC. 5. RECORDKEEPING REGULATIONS FOR INSURED DE-

5 POSITORY INSTITUTIONS.

6 Section 21(b) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act
7 (12 U.S.C. 1829b(b)) is amended by adding at the end
8 the following:

9 "(4) THRESHOLDS.—The regulations prescribed
10 under this subsection shall apply to transactions of 11 not less than $10,000 (as adjusted for each fiscal
12 year beginning after September 30, 2022 to reflect
13 the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index
14 for such fiscal year compared to the Consumer Price
15 Index for the year ending September 30, 1974).".
